

BIRCH CREEK

2017 Fall Concert Series

SEPTEMBER 2

Talk of the Town

Dutton Concert Barn | 7:30 p.m.

Kevin Van Ess returns to Birch Creek with his band, Talk of the Town, for a night of authentic swing/New Orleans jazz. This six piece group consisting of clarinet/saxophone, trumpet, trombone/tuba/banjo, bass, piano/vocals and drums has collectively over 300 years of experience. Sponsored by Steve & Jackie Kane.

SEPTEMBER 16

Ted Yoder - Viral Sensation

Dutton Concert Barn | 7:30 p.m.

Facebook viral sensation and master of the hammered dulcimer, Ted Yoder's virtuosity is a visual and auditory delight with dramatic arcs through a broad sweep of classic, pop, and original music. Sponsored by Steve & Jackie Kane.

DECEMBER 2

Christmas Around the World

Birch Creek Faculty Brass & Percussion with Handbell Choir and Carol Sing
Juniper Hall | 2:30 p.m. Family Concert and Juniper Hall | 7 p.m. Evening Concert

Birch Creek's Symphony Session Brass and select Percussion Faculty, along with the Sister Bay Moravian Church Handbell Choir, (7 pm only) will return for a celebration of the holidays with song selections from around the world. A Carol Sing will be led by vocalist Cynthia Stiehl. Sponsored by the Birch Creek Board of Trustees, the Tannenbaum Holiday Shop and Door County Medical Center.

SEPTEMBER 30

Scott Burns Quintet

Dutton Concert Barn | 7:30 p.m.

Birch Creek Jazz faculty member Scott Burns returns with his quintet to feast our senses with music fresh from the Chicago area jazz scene. From classic greats to contemporary trends, this quintet will leave you wanting more. Sponsored by the Birch Creek Board of Trustees.

OCTOBER 14

A Tribute to Ella Fitzgerald

Juniper Hall | 5:30 p.m. Reception with Hors d'oeuvres/Cash Bar | 7 p.m. Concert

Jazz Session Faculty members Katie Ernst, vocalist and bassist, and Michael Stryker, pianist, along with tenor sax player, Dustin Laurenzi, will help us celebrate the centennial year of Ella Fitzgerald, as we pay tribute to "The First Lady of Swing" with a program of jazz standards. Sponsored by the Birch Creek Associates.

Purchase tickets at birchcreek.org/tickets | 920-868-3763 | 3821 County Hwy E, Egg Harbor